Entertainment History Made in Palm Springs

THIS IS IT — Mr. Box Office himself, none other than Charles Skouras, president of Fox West Coast Theatres, clasps the hand of Carl Leserman, who is credited with fathering the idea of telemeter. Symbolically the handshake takes place over a television set. It is predicted that most of the television sets in the nation will eventually have attached to them the telemeter coin box making it possible to see first run motion pictures on a pay-as-you-see basis.

WORLD PREMIERE — The spotlight of the world of entertainment was focused on the foyer of the Plaza theatre tonight where "Forever Female" had it's world premiere and at the same time being viewed in 75 homes and at the Racquet club by other hundreds. Pictured on a giant telemeter coin box in the lobby of the Plaza theatre is Mrs. William (Mousie) Powell and John Woods, general manager for the Palm Springs Television corporation, subsidiary of International Telemeter Corporation.

Big Names in Palm Springs for Premiere

Under the glare of Hollywood-style kleig lights Saturday night, movie stars, television and radio celebrities, top officials, and others lucky enough to have tickets, thronged the court at Earle Strebe's Plaza theater as they arrived to view the world premiere of "Forever Female," chosen as the first "pay-as-you-see" telemeter release.

At scattered spots throughout Palm Springs, in some 70 locations, $1.35 in the coin box unscrambled the picture so it could be viewed on television, simultaneously with the premiere.

The center section of the Plaza theater, designated as the Premiere Circle, was roped off for celebrities. As they arrived to enter the theater they pushed through crowds of film fans and curious spectators there to watch the gala spectacle.

There was all the glamor and trappings of a Hollywood premiere as Telemeter turned the spotlight on Palm Springs.

It was a night that has been long-anticipated and that has brought Palm Springs worldwide publicity. Newsreel, television and press cameras

Palm Springs is Only Spot to See Grid Telecast

Representing a first for the sports world, the Notre Dame-USC game from the Coliseum in Los Angeles, was telecast exclusively to Telemeter subscribers in Palm Springs Saturday afternoon. Out of the 26 million television sets in the United States only those in Palm Springs with Telemeter connections viewed the game.

The telecast was microwaved from Los Angeles to the Palm Springs Telemeter studio and was viewed in Palm Springs homes to which Telemeter coin boxes were attached. A large crowd viewed the telecast in the diningroom at the Racquet Club. Arrangements for the telecast were completed Friday by Carl Leserman of Telemeter, Willis Hunt director of athletics at USC, Ed Krause, director of athletics at Notre Dame, and Asa Bushnell, head of the National Collegiate association. A charge of $1 was made, with proceeds divided exactly as the gate receipts were.

Union of Motion Pictures and Television Marks New Milestone in Entertainment

By Bill Rashall

An old, old man care-worn with financial worries and a beautiful young damsel exchanged marital vows in Palm Springs Saturday night.

There are many who say that it was a marriage of necessity. The old man of the theatre and his dwindling box office receipts and the beautiful young thing — Miss Television.

The marriage ring was in the form of an entirely new entertainment media, trade marked Telemeter.

THE CEREMONY was witnessed by hundreds and acclaimed the most successful "May and December" marriage ever taking place.

The reception that followed saw more than 800 present at the Racquet Club and the con-

WRONG GEAR — The car pictured above in the Glass Kitchen, 1095 South Palm Canyon drive, was supposed to travel back instead of forward, when it crashed into the front window of the restaurant at 10:37 p.m., Friday. WHAT'S TEXAS got? . . . The stars were bigger and brighter right here in Palm Springs . . . Both above and on the ground level . . . Palm Springs is accustomed to having top-notchers in every block most of the time . . . But there were more Big Names to the square foot in the Village Saturday night than in all of Hollywood . . . At the nuptial rites of moving pictures and television . . . But, like all else, did you ever stop to consider that movies and TV did not plight their troth, as society writers like to say, until TV got a coin box? . . . Forever Female.

The Glass Kitchen, 1095 South Palm Canyon drive, had a surprise customer Friday night—one which didn't partake of the nourishment offered by the restaurant.

It was an automobile crashing through its front window on the northeast side, coming to rest inside the building.

Driver of the car, Patricia Sproule of 3763 Calle San Antonio, told investigating officers that she had placed the shifting lever in low gear, instead of reverse.

Damage to the building and equipment was estimated by officers at $3,000.

Council to Meet Tomorrow Night

City council will hold its next regular meeting at 8 p. m. tomorrow, Tuesday, at the council chambers.

Among topics scheduled to be discussed are the proposed new city hall, and setting of a hearing date for improvement of Calle Roca and Calle Chia under the Assessment Act of 1911.

SHOP EARLY IN PALM SPRINGS EDITION OF SUN OUT THURSDAY

Firm in the belief that in the Palm Springs shopping area there are to be found in incomparable grouping of stores and shops offering the gamut in Christmas gifts at reasonable prices, THE DESERT SUN will publish a "Shop Early In Palm Springs" Special Section in next Thursday's issue.

Emphasis will be placed first on shopping early and lastly and most importantly to shop the merchants' offerings in this area first before going out of town to complete that Christmas list.

It is a definite fact that Palm Springs each season is gaining more laurels as the home of originals in costumes, ceramics, shoes, jewelry, fabrics, furniture, and other lines, which in itself is an appealing reason for our readers to shop first in Palm Springs for Christmas, and also can be and is a strong magnet in drawing many shoppers from the entire Southern California area.

Also the myth that Palm Springs prices are higher than elsewhere can be proved just that by a check of the Palm Springs stores and shops.

Our readers are urged to make the Christmas Shopping Section of next Thursday's issue of this newspaper their source of information on holiday gifts.

X-Ray Unit to be in City for Four Days this Week

The examination is free and confidential reports will be sent each one X-rayed following the tests.

Grey Ladies who will assist at the mobile unit are: Mesdames John Williams, Roger Williams, Francis Crocker, William Tackett, Newton Hotchkiss, John Wood, Arthur Hoff, Charles H. The PUBLISHER'S Corner

by OLIVER B. JAYNES

EVEN BAD PUBLICITY is better than no publicity at all. A very successful restaurant operator once told me that he would rather a story get into the newspapers that someone got food poisoning in his place than nothing at all about his place.

I draw this view to the attention of many who have complained about the article on Palm Springs by Cleveland Amory which appeared in many newspapers — including several big metropolitan dailies. It was the last of a series which Amory wrote on "The Last Resorts" in which he pointed out that "while the East's social resorts are withering on the vine, the West's are blooming." He says that Palm Springs is the best example of the "new American society", even though he describes the inhabitants as "the strangest to be found anywhere West of the Bronx Zoo."

If this story had been strictly factual it might not have been half as interesting — might not have been printed. We who live here know TOO much about Palm Springs — we don't even realize our own peculiarities and the "unusual" about our community. While Amory's disregard of the facts is disconcerting to most of us, those who really appreciate the value of publicity will give the article three cheers — or rather the fact that it received such a large circulation.

Never mind that he calls this a wind-swept oasis filled with glorified bungalow courts, honky-tonk motels and traffic jams. Not a true picture but one that stimulates the imagination, anyway. Throughout the article the writer would have his readers believe that Villagers (whom he incorrectly calls "Palm Springsians") wouldn't pass a third grade IQ test. But that doesn't concern prospective visitors who are more interested in what movie people live and visit here, how many swimming pools we have, how fast the place has grown and that the men wear the most extraordinary colored shirts while the ladies wear bejeweled glasses and as little as the law allows.

Charles Farrell was, of course, mayor when the article was written — and Bob Hope is still honorary as far as I know. Let's not quibble over a few errors or outlandish impressions of a writer who must have taken one look and few notes — it was still publicity and it wasn't all bad by a long ways.

Let's not look a gift horse in the mouth and scold Mr. Cleveland Amory or the newspapers which used his funny article about Palm Springs. Let's make him honorary dog catcher and send him the key to our glamorous animal shelter!

MOTION PICTURE MOGUL — Barney Balaban, president of Paramount Pictures corporation, and nationally known philanthropist trussed the financial structure of Telemeter with Paramount dollars to make it the success predicted for this new media. He was convinced that the wedding of motion pictures and pay-as-you-see television could be the solution to stop the dwindling take at the box offices. Balaban should know, he is the co-founder of the famed motion picture chain, Balaban and Katz.

gratulations heaped on the "pair" was uttered in words of sparkling jubilation.

The motion picture industry, plagued with ever decreasing receipts at box offices throughout the country, will welcome this new media with open arms.

THAT THIS is a fact was clearly indicated by the presence at the "wedding" and reception that followed by the tycoons of that industry. Barney Balaban, president of Paramount Motion Pictures; Hal Roach Jr., whose father carved a name for himself in the early history of that industry and a long list of other persons too numerous to mention.

Present also were the stars of the motion picture world. For them Telemeter may open new avenues and perhaps even greater heights of fame.

NOVEL, TOO, was the presentation of the motion picture "Forever Female", with an all-star cast.

It's world premiere with all of the fanfare of a similar event in Hollywood took place at the Plaza theatre.

The star-gazers were out in front of the lobby while the limousines pulled up to be greeted by a young man with a microphone in his hand. The only thing missing was Grauman's Chinese theatre to give it the authentic Hollywood setting and the handprints of famed stars imbedded in cement.

BUT EARLE STREBE, owner of the theatre, was there, the first motion picture exhibitor in the world to participate, cash-wise, in a double premiere of the same picture.

Double premiere because the same picture was being telemetered to more than 75 homes and the Racquet Club via the telemeter coin box attached to television sets.

It was a first for Palm Springs. A first, which many who are wise in the entertainment world (money-wise, that is) declare, places the motion picture world on the threshold of a new entre into the palace of Midas and his heaps of gold.

OF COURSE, there were some skeptics—the dyed in the wool old-time producer of motion pictures who a long time ago looked with scorn upon the advent of sound in that industry. These later accepted the inevitable or dropped by the wayside.

The same is expected to hold in the case of Telemeter.

THIS NEW MEDIA, which is not only confined to motion pictures but to educational features, sports programs and which may answer many questions in television programming, is here to stay thanks to the vision of men who oddly enough recognized the devastating competition of television and moved forward in an effort to make it pay expected huge profits to the motion picture industry.

And the sight at the Racquet Club was something long to be remembered. It centered around the careworn old man, motion picture industry, and the beauteous figure of the future who, refusing to burden her maiden name now world famous, will continue to be called Miss Telemeter.

Ummm. What a deal. It's strictly from re-juvenation, the dance steps performed by that old, old man.

Insomnia

Would Have Been Better for Him

Walter William Hute, 64, went to the Palm Springs police station as a sleeper one night last week, but local officers weren't asleep.

Sgt. Durman Ordway, checking the daily report the next morning, noticed that the name corresponded to one signed on a "no account" check about six weeks ago, and checked the two signatures.

After noting that the two signatures were distinctive and matched perfectly, Sgt. Ordway arrested Hute.

The check was issued to a local grocery store, and was for $10. Hute left town soon after issuing of the check, and had just returned last week.

connection with Twentynine Palms.

C. C. COVEY, of North Palm Springs and Desert Hot Springs started the movement when he suggested "dusting off the Elliot plan of 1949 labelled "Plans for the Coachella Valley."

Covey recalled that Eliot several years ago proposed there should be a primary county highway along Indian avenue.

Eliot's map showed Indian avenue linking Palm Springs, and the remainder of Coachella Valley via Highway 99 and Garnet, with San Bernardino county communities. The map showed a route veering westward from Indian avenue about a mile and a half north of North Palm Springs.

COVEY SAID this plan might be followed or Indian avenue could be extended almost due north to connect with the Twentynine Palms road after it reaches Morongo Valley.

Covey said that the new Twentynine Palms-Amboy road will be completed in 10 or 12 days. In conjunction with it the Indian avenue extension would give an outlet to Highway 66 at Amboy, he said. He also said extension of Indian avenue would give Palm Springs and Coachella Valley a better connection with the Victorville area and northern San Bernardino county. Travel is now mostly via San Bernardino and Cajon Pass, he said.

CVAPC President Clarence Washburn, who also is highway chairman, promised to investigate Covey's proposal.

NOW THAT Thanksgiving is a memory . . . (Or is it? Druggist told me his Bicarbonate of Soda sales topped all records this week) . . . It's time to discuss Christmas . . . Some towns jumped the gun . . . Banning and Colton had Merry Christmas signs and jingle bells all over the place before they even whetted the axe for the Thanksgiving Turkey . . . In the Village, the city shows wise restraint in putting up those Christmas decorations donated by the Junior Chamber of Commerce . . . But speaking of Christmas . . . Merritt Williams, acting postmaster, said that with the big day coming on apace, now is the time to shop and MAIL.

HE WANTED all Villagers to know that the sooner they put their Yuletide packages in the mail and sent out those Christmas greeting cards, the easier it would be on them . . . Now there's no long waiting in line, no trampling and rushing and the clerks are still fresh and speedy on the assistance . . . Later, it is going to be hectic . . . Besides, said Williams, you get your Christmas cards mailed now and the people who forgot to send you one won't be embarrassed . . . They'll still have time for the last minute hassle.

WITH THE END of the year coming and that universal question about to be propounded . . . "Is this deductible?" . . . A thought comes to mind . . . Young men are advised to get married . . . Settle down . . . Raise families . . . be respectable producing citizens . . . But, take the state income tax for example . . . A single man is allowed $2,000 . . . When he marries, he only has $1,750 . . . His wife gets the other $1,750 exemption . . . Uncle Sam is a bit more fair . . . He makes it $600 each . . . Some other countries do it differently . . . They sock a bachelor a heavy tax to encourage trips to the altar.

HILDY CRAWFORD of the society side of The Sun was writing her column, "Around Town" the other day . . . And said: "This takes a lot of digging . . . It would be easier if I just could write this out of my head, without a score of telephone calls punctuated by disconnections and sundry irritations . . . "You have it easy" . . . I just wish to remark, however, that writing a lot of stuff like this, for instance, out of your head has its handicaps . . . I know . . . It's likely to come out wooden.

First UHF Program to be Seen Via Telemeter Here

Another first for Palm Springs was scheduled for Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock.

An inaugural program and dedication ceremonies of the first Ultra High Frequency educational program was to be beamed through television screens into Palm Springs homes via Telemeter.

THE SAME PROGRAM was to be heard but not seen over television station KTHE-TV in Los Angeles but to be broadcast by UHF to Telemeter for rebroadcast over the Palm Springs Community Television system in the Village.

KTHE will be using a new channel number 28 in Los Angeles but will be seen over television screens here by turning the dial to Channel 6.

NATIONAL LEADERS in the field of educational television and pioneers in programming format are scheduled to take part in the dedication ceremonies. Among them is Dr. Harry Newman, former president of Oregon University and now president of the National Educational Television Exchange Center at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Miss Frieda Hennock of Washington, D. C., member of the FCC Board, arrived early this week to take part in the ceremonies. Dr. Franklin Dunham, chief of educational television and radio for the U. S. Office of Education and Dr. Edgar Fuller, chairman of the Joint Committee for Educational Television and executive secretary of the National Association of Chief State School Officers also are coming from Washington.

ROGER S. HALL, Visual Education Service, Boy Scouts of America, arrived from New York to participate. Governor Goodwin Knight and Attorney General Edmund G. Brown are to represent State government. Dr. Roy E. Simpson, state superintendent of public instruction and director of education will take part in the program, along with Francis W. Noel, chief of the bureau of audio-visual education.

U. S. Attorney Laughlin Waters of the southern California district, Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz, Allison McNay, chief of the educational division for Standard Oil Company of California, and many others have accepted invitations to participate in the discussions.

William H. Sener, director of Telecommunications for the Hancock Foundation announced a unique format for dedication ceremonies. For the first time on such an occasion, there will be no formal speeches. Snatches of regular educational programs will be interspersed over the air waves with hot discussion periods and remarks of distinguished guests, as TV cameras switch from the stage in Hancock Hall to four other studio sets.

TAKES FROM the regular shows will be TV'ed to a large prismatic projection screen in front of more than 400 guests in the auditorium, Sener said. He added that there'll be "hardly a take running over five minutes" out of the probable 2-hour show. It was indicated that directors, production men and technicians will have a whale of a time.

"Educational television is new to the west, so we are trying everything new that's worth while," Sener remarked. "Telemetering in Palm Springs is new, and we are glad to cooperate in this first-time venture."

Hit-Run Charge Echoes Accident

Sgt. William Lux, arresting officer, traced Massie through the license number of the car.

Miss Buggs told police that she was driving south on Sunrise Way about 10:45 p.m., Friday, when her car collided with one traveling north on Sunrise. The other driver stopped, but refused to give name and address, she said.

Capacity Crowd Sees Grapplers at Sports Arena

The largest crowd of the season, more than 600 fans, attended the wrestling bouts at the Palm Springs Arena Friday night and acclaimed them as the best to date.

Most popular of the four bouts was the Midget Tag Team match, which was won by Sky Low Low and Victorio Gonzales.

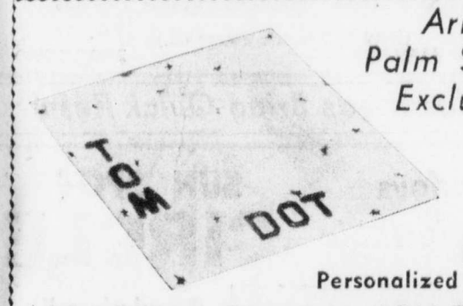

THEY TOOK the first fall in 9 minutes and 20 seconds with a series of blows and a body press; Pee Wee James and Tuffy McRae came back in the second with two airplane spins and a body press, to win in 15 minutes 40 seconds, then Sky Low Low and Gonzales took the deciding fall with a series of hip rolls and body press in 9 minutes and 55 seconds.

In the feature bout, Lord Blears rallied to take the final two falls and the match. Leo Garibaldi took the first with a knee lift to the head in 9 minutes and 51 seconds, but Lord Blears, concentrating on the left leg of Garibaldi, won the second in 9 minutes 20 seconds, and the third in 4 minutes 59 seconds. Garibaldi submitted both times.

TOM MOONEY, "sheriff of Twentynine Palms," won the opener over Jack Britton in 11 minutes 42 seconds, with a series of hard blows and a body press.

Ted Christy lost his bout with Dave Levin when he stepped out of the ring and was counted out by Referee Joe Woods. Time was 5 minutes 20 seconds.

As a side feature to the wrestling, a fan stole the cane used by Lord Blears' second and Lord Blears and other ring officials had to leave the ring to recover it.

Explorers Plan Round Tables

A Round-Table meeting for Explorer leaders and Explorer Scouts will be held Wednesday evening at Frances Stevens school. These meetings will continue on the first Wednesday of each month at the school, Claud Chapin, leadership training chairman said Friday.

"The term, 'explorer leader' includes not only Post committeemen but also committeemen on Boy Scout troops assigned to the job of coordinating the Explorer program with that of the troop," Chapin said.

The Round-Table agenda is, in itself, a leader training course in all phases of the Explorer program, he said, and it is important that these leaders attend to assist the young men in setting up a district schedule full of action.

Sees Burglary in Action, Nabs Pair of Suspects

Sgt. John Herrera was at the scene of a burglary Wednesday evening, and apprehended two of the suspects and possibly a third.

While checking the streets at 11 p.m., Sgt. Herrera noticed three youths walking on Alejo road between Palm Canyon and Indian avenue. He then saw one of the trio, Frank Valencia, 22, break a car window, and immediately gave chase.

As he stoped Valencia and a 14-year-old companion, the former threw away a ladies' coat taken from the car. Both suspects were brought to the police station. A third person was brought to the station for questioning.

Owner of the car was Paul R. Fouke of Long Beach.

Valencia was arraigned on a burglary charge in justice court Friday.

AROUND TOWN

With Hildy Crawford

Telemeter and Paramount executives officiated at the wedding . . . of movies and television . . . Saturday night in Palm Springs . . . and some of the top names of Hollywood were in the wedding party . . . as the vows were exchanged at the Plaza theatre . . . and afterwards at the reception at the Racquet Club . . .

Carrying out the theme . . . it would be no surprise to see "Just Married" signs and strings of old shoes . . . decorating the Telemeter trucks that are a familiar sight . . . around the Village . . .

This is a union . . . that should last to celebrate its Golden Anniversary . . . and it would be safe to end it . . . "and so they lived happily ever afterwards" . . .

Telemeter

Palm Springs has never seen such a party as the one staged by Telemeter and Paramount officials . . . at the Racquet Club Saturday night after the premiere . . . Top brass from the studios . . . film celebrities . . . and press . . . mingled at the party which overflowed the two cottages taken over by Telemeter . . . and kept the Club well-filled all evening . . . A canopy was stretched over the patio between the cottages . . . and a huge replica of the Telemeter coinbox set the background . . . for bar and buffet tables . . . Four television sets gave a second showing of "Forever Female" . . .

Among the top Paramount officials were . . . Mr. and Mrs. Barney Balaban (he's Paramount's president), Russell Holman, Mr. and Mrs. Y. Frank Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Karp . . .

Paul Raibourn (chairman of the board of Telemeter), Dr. Louis Ridenour (Telemeter's top technician), Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leserman, the Pat Duggans (he's producer of "Forever Female"), Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goldwyn, the Sol Lessers, Mervyn LeRoys, Mr. and Mrs. David Hearst, Don Hartman, the Tom O'Neils (he's president of Mutual Broadcasting system), the Dan O'Sheas (he's vice president of Columbia Broadcasting system), the Bob Howards, were in the throng of distinguished guests . . .

Hollywood's most distinguished names were among the invited guests . . . the Bob Hopes, Jack Bennys, Eddie Cantor, Bing Crosby, George Montgomery and Dinah Shore, Rhonda Fleming and Dr. Lew Morrell, the Ray Millands, the Barry Sullivans, Howard Duff, Buddy Adler and Anita Louise, the Bill Powells, Pat Crowley, and, of course, Charles Farrell, owner of the Racquet Club . . . and many more . . .

Lloyd and Orpha Frank have opened their Vereda del Norte home . . . and Orph is hoping the desert sunshine will speed her recovery from a major operation she underwent over a month ago . . . She was hospitalized for 26 days . . .

Overheard at Howard Manor: Bob Howard's description of Dinah Shore's husband, George Montgomery: "the man who came to Dinah" . . . unidentified distaff sider, upon being introduced to Judge Edward R. Brand: "I'm glad to see you, judge, and I should be. After all, you gave me my name back" . . . maitre d'Mario, speaking of an up-state Nevada club that closed: "things were so slow the waiters got snowblind looking at the empty tablecloths" . . .

O Whotta Nite

Like all The Ranch parties . . . Friday night's style show turned into an hilarious evening . . . with all kinds of things happening . . . George Mann was there with Irene Hervey . . . and must have felt right at home . . . for he used to be in "Hellzapoppin" . . . Art and Al Beale manned the piano for some of their merry music . . . and I loved the look on the face of Arthur Bergh (noted composer . . . he and his wife Jerry were weekend houseguests of the Maloufs) when Art played some sit-down (literally) music . . . Add Dr. and Mrs. Mace Gazda to the Malouf party . . .

Eve and Bill Brooks (who are back at their Palm Springs home) were with Ed McCoubrey and Mary Hurrell joined them . . . after fulfilling her modelling stint . . . Scotty Rubin was there with a party . . . including the beauteous Cookie Gordon, (ex-wife of Songwriter Mack Gordon) . . . and Monte Herbert looking mighty proud of his Bettye . . . one of the prettiest of the models . . .

The Russell Wades and Ray Corlisses . . . had the Bill Beckets of Bel-Air . . . and Tom Curtis at their table . . . and, for a time, Bill Wyler (he directed "Roman Holiday") who's just back from Italy . . . Ben Cole (Ava Gardner's agent . . . who just put her aboard a plane Europe-bound) was there with Katherine Cunningham . . . The Ernie Dunlevies . . . Bill and Thor Hammond (of Hammond Construction company of Portland) . . . The Ed Houghtons, the Robert Campbells of Chicago and Miami Shores, Bede Saunders (who's returning to Pontiac after an extended visit with the Houghtons), and Helen Reichel (she tells me they go North today and won't be back until mid-February) . . . There was music and dancing . . . (that Jana is in Arthur Murray's class) . . . and Jeanne Keller with her cr-r-azy hats . . . but the climax of the evening . . . was a horse dancing on the dance floor . . . That's right . . . a big, gray horse . . .

I've said it before . . . and I'll say it again . . . This is Palm Springs . . . Anything can happen here . . . and usually does . . . especially when Ned and Joann Crawford are hosting the party . . .

To Marry

Marriage is imminent for Kitten Montgomery . . . Her fiance Jim Hamilton Scott flew in Friday from Erie, Pennsylvania . . . and Grace Pope hastily arranged a cocktail party . . . so a few of Kitten's close friends might meet him . . . They'll make their home in Pennsylvania I hear . . . Guests were Bob and Jane Hall, Eleanor Kane, Ken Covington, Bill and Jackie Otto, Sally Smith, Johnny Faunce and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Spencer . . .

Style Show

A number of fashionable groups were noted at Thunderbird yesterday noon . . . watching the showing of Southwestern fashions . . . staged by Emily Ann of Albuquerque . . . with models from Caroline Leonetti Ltd. . . . Among those hostessing luncheon groups were . . . Mesdames Belmont SanChez, Fred Karlen, Harrison Bligh, J. Ross Clark II and Mrs. William McKay of Seattle . . . Frank Bogert commentated the show . . .

The Charles Bennetts of Wickenburg (among Arizona's leading cattle ranchers) and Frank Healey (head of the electronics department for Bing Crosby Enterprises) . . . had Thanksgiving dinner in Thunderbird's diningroom . . . Other guests included the John F. Fitzpatricks (Salt Lake editor) and Miss Margaret F. Kearns of Salt Lake . . . Jesse Delanoy (Alameda banker) . . . Willard Parker and his wife Virginia Fields, and Hyatt von Dehn . . . Bing Crosby and two sons, Lindsay and Denny (one of the twins) were also back at their Thunderbird home . . . B. J. and Belmont SanChez were dinner hosts at a party which included the Leo Reardons, Edwin Fallgrens, Eddie LeBarons, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Burns of Long Beach . . .

Gathered around the table at the Norman Tulk home at 394 West Vereda Sur on Thanksgiving Day were . . . the Hugh Goldens, the William Bradys of New York, Mary Hurrell and the Tulk's nephew John Bush (a student at Cal-Tech) . . .

From India

His wife had arranged a surprise birthday party . . . for Lakshman Sarup (they live at 1758 Mesa) . . . but it was delayed a few days to await the arrival of Jagut Bhatia (motion picture producer) from India . . . Bhatia was the technical adviser on "Kim" and was also interested in that epic production "The River" . . . and has come here to open channels for the importation of Indian films . . .

For the occasion Mrs. Sarup had arranged a traditional Indian dinner . . . topped off by an American birthday cake and ice cream . . .

Other guests were Omar and Marguerita Kirschner of Indio

A member of the Freilander family of Washington and Boston . . . Mrs. Kirschner is a talented sculpturess and the creator of the Queen Scherezade statue in the fountains at the Indio fairgrounds) . . . and Mr. Wayne Wilson . . .

Bhatia is now in Hollywood but will return to Palm Springs . . . He brought with him from India a remarkable collection of carved ivory and textiles . . .

This is a new one . . . a Village visitor has to keep in touch with his office . . . because the seals sometimes refuse to eat while he's away . . . It's the truth . . . Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ensor of Seaside, Oregon . . . own the Seaside Aquarium . . . which is known all over the Northwest for its herd of 10 seals . . . which he trains . . . between fishing trips to acquire octopi and other specimens for the aquarium . . . Like I told you . . . seals have their peculiarities . . . and sometimes refuse to eat when their trainer is away . . . The Ensors are at La Mirada . . . on a return visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. Yerkes, who visited in Seaside this past Summer . . .

Lee Bering tells me that he is planning one of those fabulous buffets . . . for which he is famous . . . This next big Tennis Club event is scheduled for Sunday, December 13 . . .

The Sol Lessers spent Thanksgiving day at their Palm Springs home . . . It was a family party with their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Pfaelzer and children here from Beverly Hills . . . and their son Julian Lesser and children . . . The Lessers, of course, attended the after-theatre Telemeter party at the Racquet Club Saturday night.

Colonists Model Imports at Smoke Tree Style Show

With Smoke Tree colonists and guests as models, Mrs. Max Schwartz staged a luncheon fashion show around the Smoke Tree pool Friday noon.

Models included Mrs. Andrew Spinks and her charming daughter Melinda, Mrs. Channing Wells, Mrs. John Luccareni, Mrs. Frederick Grant, Mrs. Joe Costello of San Francisco; Mrs. John Haman, Mrs. Louis Earle, Mrs. Fred Ingram, Miss Rowena Reichel, Mrs. Bert Warren, Mrs. John Blish, Mrs. Kurt Besser, Mrs. Percy Mann, Mrs. Norma Oliver.

The beautiful clothes, fashioned of English wool, knitted by Hanro of Switzerland and styled by famous Parisian designers, were from Mrs. Schwartz' Alpenrose shop, and especiall imported by her.

An unusually striking costume was the Christian Dior suit, in Vapeur color, with an antelope bag, modeled by Mrs. Warren.

Little Melinda wore a white Swiss hand-embroidered dress from Interlaken and was accompanied by a French Poodle Entrenous, owned by Mrs. C. W. Stimson.

A buffet luncheon was served by the pool and the audience was seated at small tables in the patio.

Background music was furnished by Vick Masters and his musicians.

CASH OUT!

IDEAL summer home located at the foot of San Gorgonio mountain in Banning. This is truly a Palm Springs type of home with three bedrooms, two baths. A large lot with many shade trees and an abundance of shrubbery. Good winter rental. Due to business reasons owner must sell. Listed at $22,500 but would take $17,000 on right terms. Would also consider trade for Palm Springs home.

Green, Tee at Thunderbird

By FRANK BOGERT

The week at Thunderbird starts with a big meeting on our $15,000 Pro-Amateur Tournament in January. Milt Hicks is the chairman and checks each Committee to see what they have accomplished during the week. This gets to be really big business with 32 of the nation's top professional golfers all set to arrive here for a week of the best golf ever to hit town. You can expect a big week in all the hotels in town as this should draw crowds from all over the country. The dates are January 28 to 31st, if you haven't heard.

Lots of golf this week with a full house for Thanksgiving and the migratory Northwesterners arriving in full force. The Fred Karlens of Tacoma, the Neil Jamisons, Jack Ballingers, Hawthorne Dents, Bill Edris, John Hamrick, Jens Hansen, Bill McKay, Archie Morgan, Gordon Prentice, Ben Shearer, Max Wyman, all of Seattle. The Ray Jones from Spokane and Mrs. Carl Soderberg of Hayden Lake.

Der Bingle himself down for the week with sons Lindsey and Denny. With them for dinner, Pete Petito and Tommy Soderberg.

Johnny Dawson playing his first game of golf in a month after a delicate operation on his wrist. He hit 16 greens out of the 18 and came up with a 68. No telling what he will shoot when he gets in condition. Seems this wrist has been a chronic ailment for the past five years and was spoiling his swing.

Put Norm Waters on the train to Chicago to get Peg and return to the Club in December. He is about to buy a house and move out permanently.

Since Jimmy Bernard took over the Stable things have really peen poppin'. She has all the kids on the Golf Course taking riding lessons and making amazing progress. Twenty of them are off today for the Shadow Mountain to Gymkhana to practice for the show here Sunday.

Just received word from Dan Wray that we are all set for the big Skeet Tournament in December. We have the skeet field planted in grass with new asphalt walks and ready for a good shoot with four ranges. People who know skeet tell us it is one of the best and most beautifully situated in the country. The pigeons go out with a clear sky background and the view over the golf course is really beautiful. This will be one of our most interesting activities in the future.

Just received a clipping from Buffalo, New York, and find our pal Dick Guelich and his wife are Mr. and Mrs. Golf in that area. They are our most enthusiastic players here every morning at 7:00 A.M. waiting for the Golf Shop to open. They usually get in 36 holes and sometimes to 45 and think nothing of it. Dick was low in a real hot foursome Wednesday with a 70 to J. Ross Clark's 79, Milt Hicks' 77 and Bruce McCormick's 78.

Next week is our annual Member-Guest Tournament which has the club filled to capacity. There is nothing like a golf tournament to bring people down during the dull season. These golfers literally come out from under rocks and swarm the place at the mention of a little competition.

Interesting social event in our area was the opening of Doc Ketchersid's Animal Clinic next to Thunderbird this week. His hospital is probably the best equipped in Southern California and certainly the most modern. We think he is a terrific addition to the community as he can board all kinds of varmints and besides is a top vet with horses.

Desi and Lucy just called from Los Angeles, having returned from a three day sojourn in Washington for a TV show with the President. They are coming down for the whole month, having decided on Palm Springs instead of Honolulu.

After writing this I have decided no one in his right mind would read it all the way through. Next week it will be replaced with a picture. If one picture is worth a thousand words as brother Confucius supposedly said, why bother with all this. I'll just send his nibs, Oliver Jaynes, a good picture each week and call it Thunderbird's Weekly Picture. That way I can get Bill Rashall off my neck too, so watch for the picture next week from Thunderbird.

The Christmas Musical Tea, sponsored by the Women's Circle of the Palm Springs Community Church, will be held Tuesday, December 8, at 2:30 p. m. A large crowd of members and friends is expected in the church sanctuary to hear the talented artists play and sing Christmas music.

The program chairman, Mrs. William Lux, has announced that the following musicians will perform: Trixie Jarrette, pianist; Wynne Hammond, soprano; Betty Lou Ackerman, marimba; Hazel Hitchcock, violin; Jean Blackstone and Lois Lux accompanying.

Following the program, tea will be served in the Women's Parlor by the tea chairman of the day, Mrs. Howard Stewart and her committee; Mmes. John Williams, Ethel Mendelson, Isaac Painter, Wilson Hall, William Rains, Curtis McGee, J. H. Totten, and Ross Frasher. Mrs. Roger Williams will play her harp during the tea hour. Mrs. Frederick Watson plans exciting decorations of desert foliage to carry out the Christmas theme.

Arrangements have been made for an attendant to be in the nursery to care for small children during the program and tea.

Amusing Skit Programmed for Soroptimists

An amusing (and perhaps educational) skit on "20 Ways to Kill An Organization" has been arranged by Louella Coffin and Louise McCarn for the regular luncheon meeting of Soroptimist Club to be held in the Chi Chi Blue Room tomorrow noon.

In addition there will be an assimilation talk by Madge Holderman.

Dr. Calista Stefan, Soroptimist president, will preside at the luncheon meeting.

Don Cameron SAYS..

After an absence of over three month's here's your columnist. Back on the job . . . Just in case anyone didn't know, I was riding with a friend to Indio one fine Summer evening . . . August 9 to be exact, down by La Quinta the driver hit a soft shoulder and over we rolled a few times . . . Always had believed . . . Go in your own car and you'll get there and certainly get back . . . but . . . didn't follow that. Anyhoo, broke my pelvis, collarbone, a flock of ribs and for an encore contracted pneumonia . . . Now fifty-seven pounds lighter . . . a hundred or two Erle Stanley Gardner and Mickey Spillane mysteries later . . . not to mention reading all the best sellers in fiction, World Series and football games on radio . . . A hospital is a great place to relax . . . Went in there a tight 44 and came out a loose 32 . . . Definitely "on the mend" now, won't be long 'fore I can take care of business. Thanks to the guest columnists who've kept things going . . . Peggy Lester, Lucille Burick and my good wife Isabelle . . . She's not only written columns but also ran the business.

Can't begin to express my thanks to the many, many readers of this column who wrote cards and letters. From all over the country, many folks unknown to me but readers of the Desert Sun, sent greetings . . .

Well . . . enough of this "Where was Cameron for three months?" We are starting the greatest season the desert has ever known . . . That old expression "When does the Season start" has gone . . . Fact is, I don't think last season ever ended because of the Summer's business, Desert Air Hotel and Shadow Mountain club have enjoyed . . . For years back this column has predicted a boom on Highway 111 frontage and, lo and behold, it's come to BE this season . . .

Bill and Jean Boyken down from San Mateo to their Highway home in Rancho Mirage . . . Bill's a top flight patent attorney in the Crocker Building in San Francisco . . .

Beth Fisher off to the big game between Cal and Stanford in Berkeley with husband Frank, then to Dunsmuir where her daughter Polly and husband Chappie Wentoworth owner and publisher of the local newspaper . . .

Ron and Gladys Button in their San Gorgonio home . . . Ron in a breather between trips to Washington as Republican National Committeman . . . his new appointment . . . Marcelle Di Vinna visiting the Buttons for Thanksgiving . . .

Axel Linus stopped by . . . He's the well-known portrait and landscape artist . . . Axel had with him a Swedish sundial . . . It was a perfect copy of one built by the great astronomer Tyko Brah'e way back in 1560 . . . Checked it with our very best clock and the sun checked the time within a split second . . .

Bill Daniels . . . "Academy Award" director of photography hunting the mountains under direction of his granddaughter in quest for unusual rocks . . . Mary and Hutch Hutchinson directing about ten workmen . . . a new addition to their San Gorgonio road home . . .

Pat and Wade Ambrose and all the kids spending Thanksgiving at the Thunderbird Manse . . Lou Bergland houseguest of Mary and Phil Neary . . .

Pauline and Charles Findeisen at Palm Desert Adobe with that darling daughter . . . vacationing from Westlake School for Girls . . .

A daughter was born November 25 at Desert hospital to Mr. and Mrs. James Warmouth of 3830 Calle Miguel. The little girl weighed seven pounds 13 ounces.
